VITENSO HEALTH CENTER - IN COOPERATION WITH MERCK

Exercising, receiving treatment or advice - before or after work or even during a break - the new Health Center will create the ideal conditions to provide Merck employees with even better health support.

The new Health Center will have a physiotherapy practice, a large training area, a course room, a functional room and consultation rooms.

“Maintaining our health is not something we take for granted. We support our employees in this and are further expanding our extensive health offerings with our new Health Center. We care,” says Matthias Bürk, Merck, Head of the Darmstadt site.

“The extensive range of services, coupled with short distances and a coordinated support concept, is an important part of our efforts as part of holistic health management at Merck,” says Manfred Gertig, Head of Health & Prevention.

VITENSO PREMIUM-FITNESS

Experience fitness and health training in inviting, spacious rooms flooded with daylight. Enjoy a unique ambience and use the latest equipment to the highest technical standards.

Our holistic training concept is individually tailored to you. Experienced and qualified trainers and therapists accompany you through your training program and adapt your training plan to your training progress with ongoing health checks.
